What do these results mean?

Congratulations! You achieved a passing score on this Microsoft Certification Program (MCP) exam. Please note that although you passed, there might be exam sections in which you need development. The information shown above, if any, indicates your relative results on sections of the exam. This information is provided to help you assess areas for further study. Exam preparation guides are available on the Microsoft Learning Web site: <http://www.microsoft.com/learning/>.

Please retain this score report! All benefits of the MCP will be accessed via the MCP Member site (<https://mcp.microsoft.com/mcp>), including ordering your complimentary Welcome Kit. Should you not receive an email containing your MCPID and access code to the MCP Member site, you may need to provide information on this score report in order to gain access to the MCP Member site.

Exam Results

Please note that it can take up to seven business days for passing results to be displayed on your Microsoft transcript (<https://mcp.microsoft.com/mcp/>). If this is your first Microsoft Certification Exam, you will receive two emails shortly after your transcript is created; one with your MCP Member ID number and the second with your Access Code for entering the MCP Member Site. For security purposes, the Access Code will only be active for a limited amount of time. If you do not use the Access Code before it expires, you will need to call our customer service center to request a new Access Code.

If passing results have not been posted to your transcript after seven business days, please contact Prometric by visiting <http://www.prometric.com/contactus>.

MCP Member Site

The MCP Member Site is located at <https://mcp.microsoft.com/mcp>. Step by step instructions on accessing the MCP Member Site are available at http://www.microsoft.com/learning/mcp/passport/instructions_a.asp.
